During the high wind yesterday an empty bottle was blown from a window in the top story of the Ware block upon the head of a boy name Ernest Coleman, who was one of the crowd on the pavement blow. The boy's hat afforded considerable protection, but a severe scalp wound was inflicted, which was attended to by a physician. The boy is employed by Dr. Sprague and is attending to his work as usual.

Burned the Wire.

A telephone wire was blown from the poles at Sixteenth and Chicago yesterday, and fell across the overhead wire of the Sixteenth street motor line. The loose end hung nearly to the street, and the blue flames emitted warned pedestrians to the opposite side of the thoroughfare till the conductor of a motor train made use of his bell rope to pull down the dangerous dangler. The telephone peo-ple were compelled to disconnect all the wires, but are unable to state what damage

ANOTHER RAILBOAD WAR.

Threatened Demoralization Again in Passenger Rates to the East.

A war that will simply knock the bottom out of passenger rates is predicted by all railroad men. The failure to organize a new association has produced much ill-feeling, and notices are already being given by certain Chicago-Missouri river lines that they propose to declare open rebellion and demoralize everybody. The reasons assigned for this action are that competing lines have been paying commissions, amounting to nearly as much as the fare. This, however, is only an excuse. The real fact is it is a blow at the Wisconsin Central and the Omaha, which flatly refused to join the association. This made the Alton mad and inspired it to look for vengeance. The Burlington joins in and trouble has com-

Rates will drop to $1 sure between Missouri river points and Chicago," says an ex-cited official, "and no telling how much lower. I would not be surprised to see some of the lines carry passengers free of charge before a settlement is reached. We propose to down these arbitrary outfits like the Wis-consin Central or ruin their business."

This corporation held out because its re-quest for differential rates was not granted.

Then the Milwaukee withdrew its action on the new agreement and a stormy scene followed in the meeting at Chicago Saturday morning. As a consequence, everything is in a chaotic condition. Passenger agents of the various lines here are momentarily expecting tele-grams ordering them to bulletin cut rates.

Mr. McKibbin's Exit. Since the resignation of C. H. McKibbin and J. K. Choate speculation has been rife in Union Pacific circles as to who will be the next to retire. Dame rumor mentions several names. She says that President Adams will find it convenient to Adams will find it convenient to make more than one change out on the road. This, however, may be nothing more than speculative gossip. McKibbin and Choate had assumed attitudes towards superior officers that demanded executive attention. Matters reached a point between Holcomb and McKibbin wherein President Adams was compelled to take action and sustain one or the other. It was an old fight, Reports that pelled to take action and sustain one or the other. It was an old flight. Reports that McKibbin, "gave Mr. Holcomb the lie," and then refused to apologize are denied by every one who knows the inside facts. At Denver, Meek or Choate, had to succeed. General Dodge backed Mr. Meek, consequently the latter was selected.

Salt Lake papers say that J. V. Parker, assistant general freight and passenger agent in Chicago of the Mountain division, has resigned and will be succeeded by S. W. Eccles, now passenger agent at San Fran-

Enquiries at headquarters fail to confirm the statement. The general freight agent said that if Mr. Parker had resigned he knew

The question of a permanent successor to McKibbin will not be considered untill Mr. Adams and Mr. Holcomb return from their tour of inspection over the system. It is generally conceded that no other man will ever be given the control of as many departments as were in the case of Mr. McKibben.

A C., St. P., M. & O. Train.

Next Sunday the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha will extend its service by the addition of a local train which will leave Bancroft at 6 a. m., arrive at Omaha 8:45 a. m. and returning leave this city 5:15 p. m. and arrive at Bancroft at 8 p. m. The company expects to bring in each morning a car load of milk cans from the towns along the line.

The U. P. Dummy. There has been some talk that the Union Pacific proposed to discontinue its dummy train service, but such is not contemplated at present. It may be done after the Iowa lines that have signed agreements commence to run their passenger trains across the river.

A Very Large Increase. Regardless of rate wars, snow blockades, land-slides and other drawbacks, the Union Pacific earnings for January, February, March and April were, in round numbers, $900,000 greater than for the same period last Hundred Thousand Dollars. Markel & Swobe have sold the Millard ho tel site to P. J. Sorg of Middletown, O., for $200,000 cash. They retain the building and take a ground lease running ninety-nine years at $12,000 per year, payable quarterly. The improvements are estimated to be worth $185,000. The hotel is 154 feet on Douglas by 133 feet on Thirteenth street and is five

During the term of the lease there is not to be any revaluation, and at its expiration Mr. Sorg's heirs are to pay for two-thirds of all the new improvements then on the ground.

The deal, which has been under consideraion for about three week, was closed last Saturday and the transfer will be made next

Messrs. Markel & Swobe are now having plans drawn for some much needed altera-tions in the house. At present they propose to remodel the rotunda by raising its roof an-other story and building an attractive bal-cony. They also centemplate adding several new sleeping rooms by running the structure up one story higher, but that probably will not be done this season.

Mr. Sorg calculates that this transaction will not him 6 per cent on his investment. In addition to their annual rental the lessees pay all trees.

What encouragement Connell gave Ander-What encouragement Connell gave Anderson Saturday is not known but Captain Cockrell is greatly disturbed. He has heard of "Uncle Dave's" quiet work and is rustling around among his friends. He intends to see the congressman himself before he returns to Washington and block his estimable friend's little game.

Everybody agreed that Cockrell fought annexation to hold his job, but nobody thought Dave Anderson led the opposition to consolidation just to get Cockrell's job.

Ten Buckets of Blood.

The annexation campaign waxed exceedingly warm in South Omaha for a few days, and local editors became quite personal in their remarks. Following are two sample zephyrs:

Samuel P. Brigham, in a signed article, said: "If this vituperation and abuse of me continues I shall play some of them till they will think from now until hell burns the last vestige of their water soaked rottenness, that their beds are made of chestnut burs and their pillows of thorns, and their fodder of cactus bark." David Anderson said in the Citizen: "Let the scribbler of the defamatory articles that have appeared in the bastard sheet against my character come out like a man if he has any responsibility attached to his villainous carcass. Come out and face the music, you coward, liar, seoundrel and villain,"

The shoot was for the club medal and a new hat presented by S. M. Press. Miller, Smith and McCreath shot off the tie at ten birds each, McCreath winning and taking both medal and hat. At each weekly shoot hereafter some South Omaha merchant will offer an article of value to be shot for in ad-

Hint to Five-Cent Smokers.

"Which end of that eigar are you going to put in your mouth?" inquired a Washington dealer of a Herald reporter, as the latter cut off the closed end of a 5-cent cigar. "Why, the end I have just cut," he replied. "Why do you ask," "Because," replied the cigar dealer, "to get the most enjoyment out of that eight you are doing the worst thing possible. I'll explain. In making cheap cigars a good enough wrapper is used—as good, often, as on the finer grades. Havana filler is used in a leasure, but does not run the length of the cigar, as in the beteer goods. It usually ends about an inch from the extremity of the butt or end that is generally placed in the mouth, and poor, light weed, raised in the northern states, and of a grade similar to dried cabbage, is inserted. In smoking the 5-cent cigar all the smoke, of course, passes through the miserable stub, which makes it taste badly. Now, if you will only reverse the eight and cut off the mouth end, light it and puff away, you will enjoy it very nearly as much as a finer cigar."

Warm ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

We offer today about six thousand Men's and Youths' fine suits at fully one-half what you would have to pay for the same goods elsewhere. We promised something big in the way of a suit sale and you know we never do things by halves. Today and throughout the following week you can expect one dollar to do the work of two dollars without fear of disappointment. This is not a petty sale of a few styles for the purpose of making a noise. Its a grand showing of entirely new and this season's goods--every garment made for the finest retail trade.

The few samples in our windows give only a poor idea of the value of these goods, the prices on them do not tell one-half how cheap they are sold. You must go inside the store and examine the goods. Every coat is finished open at the bottom, you can see what the quality is, examine the linings, trimmings and the general get up of the garments, see how they fit, then you will have an idea what bargains you are getting.

It would be useless to enumerate any particular style or styles in this sale. As we said there are about six thousand suits and one is as big a bargain as another. The prices range from $4.90 for a good All Wool Cheviot Suit, up to $15.00 for tailor-made extra fine Fancy Worsteds. There are all styles, light and dark colors, sacks and frocks, also fine Corkscrew Prince Alberts, silk faced, at $9.50 for the coat and vest.

Don't hesitate to come inside if you see a big crowd on the first floor, we have a second and third floor, all full of goods, and plenty of salesmen on each floor to wait on you.

MAIL ORDERS---In order to give our outside patrons an opportunity to secure some of these bargains, we have, of the larger lots in this sale, a limited quantity of samples. We will send them with rules for measuring, but cannot guarantee the filling of the order, as the goods are likely to go fast. However, you can try. We send goods C. O. D., with privilege of examining and trying on. If they are not in every way satisfactory you need not take them.
